

PUNDIT CLICHE BINGO

Spot the cliches as you watch the football this summer.
Enjoy the World Cup and laugh at the pundits at the same time!

"End to end stuff"

"For a big lad, he's got great feet"

One of the pundits looking like they might punch Adrian Chiles

"There are no easy games in WC/international football"

"This game needs a goal"

"On paper..."

"He's got that in his locker"

Mark Lawrenson says something that makes no sense whatsoever

"You've seen them given"

"A bit of 'handbags' going on there"

Presenter or commentator blames the "local broadcaster"

Andy Townsend states the obvious

Adrian Chiles make a quip about someone in the crowd

Robbie Savage says something controversial for the sake of being controversial

"On his day, he's unplayable"

"He's the one that makes them 'tick'"

Andy Townsend refers to his Rep. of Ireland days

"That's schoolboy defending"

"A typical forward's tackle"

(after a red card) "He had to go for that"

"He's got to be hitting the target from there"

Lee Dixon sits on the fence

"(insert team name) are always there or thereabouts"

"They've come with a gameplan and they're sticking to it"

ENJOY THE FOOTBALL THIS SUMMER!
